Annexed by the UK in 1857, the Cocos Islands were transferred to the Australian Government in 1955. Apart from North Keeling Island, which lies 30 kilometers north of the main group, the islands form a horseshoe-shaped atoll surrounding a lagoon. North Keeling Island was declared a national park in 1995 and is administered by Parks Australia.

Our services includes solar and battery projects, commercial and industrial electrical installations and maintenance, emergency backup power systems, civil works, trenching, and excavation, service location and survey, and assistance with other infrastructure projects including fibre optic and communications for government agencies.
