Five-guinea coin, James II, Great Britain, 1688. The guinea (/ ˈ ɡ I n i : /; commonly abbreviated gn., or gns. in plural) [1] was a coin, minted in Great Britain between 1663 and 1814, that contained approximately one-quarter of an ounce of gold. [2] The name came from the Guinea region in West Africa, from where much of the gold used to make the coins was sourced. [3]

We had an 8 Kw Deye inverter with 14 solar panels and 3 Dyness batteries installed through Greencoin Solar. The installation was exceptionally neatly done and the system has been working perfectly for almost a year now, performing optimally during the load shedding crisis a few months ago. Great service from a very professional team.
