

What is Ocean Sun?

Ocean Sun revolutionizes floating solar power production with our efficient, low-cost, and robust solution. The technology is based on modified solar PV modules on a thin flexible membrane and can cope with most seastates, from offshore locations to reservoir and lakes. If playback doesn't begin shortly, try restarting your device.

What is Europe's largest floating solar energy system?

The demonstrator is Europe's largest ocean-based floating solar energy system and aligns with the EU's commitment to remove barriers in implementing renewable energies, in accordance with its Solar Energy Strategy and the incentives for self-consumption installations.

How has the ocean sun technology been tested?

During the project Ocean Sun's technology has been analysed by independent engineering firm Innosea and tested at the SINTEF Ocean basin laboratory. Furthermore, the project has obtained a site-specific design verification from DNV according to the Ocean Sun's design premise, confirming the design's suitability for deployment.

Sweden, with its extensive 3,218 km coastline and a high 80% coastal population, possesses potential for wave energy generation. While the average wave energy density of 2.5 kW/m is moderate, the theoretical annual potential reaches 70 Terawatt hours (TWh). However, this is roughly half of Sweden's current electricity consumption (133.5 TWh in 2018).
